Description :

PDF-7af98 | Born a slave in 1857, Rufus Estes worked his way up from a Pullman Private Car attendant to a job preparing meals for the top brass at one of the country's largest steel corporations. This cookbook, the first to be written and published by a black chef, includes a number of dishes from Estes' vast culinary collection. Commenting briefly on his Southern childhood and early years as a railway atten... Rufus Estes' Good Things to Eat: The First Cookbook by an African-American Chef (Dover Cookbooks)
